2. Workshop Presenter Qualifications

Please feel free to attach a document/resumé highlighting your qualifications for presenting SECAA-sponsored workshops, including, but not limited to: years of performing experience, improv training received, previous workshop presentations or training conducted by you, and any other field experience that makes you a terrific candidate for teaching improv, acting, technical theatre, or any other workshops you might propose.

3. Terms and Conditions

1. SECAA and its representatives shall attempt to locate troupes willing and able to satisfy conditions of setting up workshops set forth by the presenter, but may or may not succeed and cannot be held liable if unsuccessful. SECAA shall operate as a third party and cannot force either the presenter or recipient to comply.
2. SECAA and its representatives shall not play a part in negotiation of terms by which the workshop will occur. Any discussion and acceptance of stipend, monetary or otherwise, shall be solely between the presenter and the recipient, and neither SECAA nor its representatives can be held responsible if one or both parties renege on said agreement. As a corollary to this agreement, SECAA shall not request or receive compensation for workshop services, unless specified in special cases, such as festivals and other official events.
3. SECAA shall administer evaluations of all workshops carried out under its auspices, as a means of quality assurance, and shall reward quality representation with strong sponsorship. SECAA expects professional conduct from its workshop presenters, and in the event of a series of complaints, reserves the right to investigate and respond.
